Grassland Humbles Boyle Rockets In Second Game Of Twin Bill

By Y. E. KABAYAMA

Team spirit and the will-to-win paid off for Grassland Pony Grads as they bounced back from a humiliating 24-3 defeat last week to humble the Boyle Rockets 9-4 in the second game of the twin bill played in Grassland.

The first game of the evening saw the Boyle Comets and the Grassland Pony team play to a 6-6 draw. Boyle Comets played a team game when Grassland threatened time and time again to score.

In the Pony game, it was Mike Oneschuk's clutch pitching which kept the revamped Comets from scoring more than six runs. He came through with 11 strikeouts although giving up five hits. His teammates made eight miscues. Newcomer, Emil Duplessiss, started on the mound for the Boyle Comets. Although he pitched only two and a third inning, he has convinced the team's coaches and the fans that he'll be around when play-off time rolls in late June. He was relieved on the mound by Leonard Jellicoe, who was quickly relieved due to illness, by Bill Logazer, who finished the game for Boyle. The game was interesting to watch from the fans' point of view as the two teams appeared well matched. Bill Logazer's wildness in the seventh robbed Boyle Comets of a well-earned victory and the team had to be satisfied with tie game.

In the second game of the evening, Grassland well-earned their 9-4 victory over Gary Derrouseau and the Boyle Rockets. Henry Matoga on the mound for Grassland scattered six hits to earn the victory. Gary was touched for two

To Build Moslem School In Area

LAC LA BICHE—The Arabian Moslem Association has commenced construction of a building to be used for a private school, reported the only one of its kind in Alberta.

A teacher is expected to arrive later in the summer from Lebanon, to hold classes in religious instruction and the Arabian language.

It is estimated that there are some 80 Syrian children up to 16 years of age, in this immediate area. Most of the parents have only been here a few years. The school is situated on the south side of the tracks near the B.A. Oil Station, is of frame, one story, construction.

Nursing Group Plans Picnic

All members attended the directors' meeting of the Rich Lake Nursing Association, May 30, at the home of Mr. Farvolden.

Plans for the picnic to be held July 4 were discussed. It was decided to have the outboard motor, first prize in the raffle, sponsored by Calvin Kumpula for the Nurses' Home Fund, on display at the picnic. The raffle will be held at a dance July 31.

Canada's 2,500 Motel Keepers Face Bears, Thieves, Skippers

Last summer, an enterprising thief armed himself with false identification, a wallet full of credit cards, and drove across Canada in a stolen car signing for everything — gas, oil, meals, rooms, clothes — all the way from Vancouver. Police, panting along his credit-strewn trail, overtook him at Toronto's Seaway Motor Hotel in his room stuffed with cameras coats, suits, hunting and fishing gear, he'd ordered on a stolen Eaton's charge account. He's presently working his way back to Vancouver by way of jails in almost every province. They figure it will take him about eight years to get home, reports John Dalrymple in an article in June Liberty magazine.

At the Wandlyn Motel near Fredricton, N.B.; the manager saw a small car drive up with an attractive young couple in the front seat and a middle-aged couple in the back. The young man rushed for the motel office with the big woman hard at his heels. She got to the desk first and demanded one double room with two double beds and a TV set. Later, the glum young man explained to the manager that he and his bride had just been married the previous day and his mother-in-law decided she and her husband would come along on the honeymoon. She insisted they save money by all sharing the same room. Even worse, she was a TV movie addict and wouldn't go to sleep until everyone else did.

The managers of Canada's 2,500 motels must be prepared to cope with everything — people coming in late to the wrong cabin and climbing into bed with someone else's husband or wife; bears at the back door; thieves who skip out leaving nothing but an empty suitcase; natural hazards such as fire and lightning, or even children left behind by absent-minded parents.

To Approach Premier On Railway Route

At a dinner meeting of the Lac la Biche Chamber of Commerce last week some discussion took place concerning organizing a motor-cade to make the trip to Edmonton to interview Premier Manning in connection with the route for the railway to Pine Point.

The 18 members present at the meeting felt that every effort should be made to keep before the authorities the obvious advantages of building such a railway by the Waterways route. No definite appointment has yet been made with Premier Manning, and it is not certain how many cars will join in the venture. Talks are continuing.

Enthusiastic Nimrods Travel By Plane

LAC LA BICHE—James Stewart and Mike Hamar flew to Grist Lake Lodge by private plane, piloted by Art Schirrmacher, last weekend, to enjoy the excellent trout fishing to be found at this lake.

Though completely isolated during the summer months, except by plane, this little lake is situated 50 miles east of Conklin (72 airmiles northeast of Lac la Biche) and near Christina Lake.

The Martins', who run a trapline in the winter and the fishing lodge in the summer, travel out to civilization by dog team in winter.

The two nimrods from here were enthusiastic about the spot even though it is hard to reach.

Gala Night Planned For Hall Opening

LAC LA BICHE — Plans are being completed for the opening of the Memorial Hall which is undergoing complete renovations. A banquet, followed by a dance, will be held June 18. Guest speakers are expected to be one or more cabinet ministers from the provincial government.

An Edmonton orchestra will furnish the music for the gala event.

Anglican Pastor Reports On Convention At Home And School Meeting

LAC LA BICHE — The regular meeting of the Lac la Biche Home and School association was held in the Dr. Swift school on May 30, with 60 members and parents present.

A letter from Mr. M. Maccagno, MLA was read by Mrs. Booker concerning his efforts and progress regarding a music teacher and a dentist for this district.

J. Williams, representing the divisional board, gave an enlightening talk on the school being organized by Mr. Gault, for gifted children.

A panel discussion on the "Do's and Dont's" for the parents of the fall beginners was arranged by Mr. Senetza as president of four primary grade teachers. Mrs. Huppie, Mrs. Carrier, Mrs. Uganetz and Miss Torresan. They pointed out that there are 10 common facts a child must know before beginning school, such as putting on own clothing, toilet habits, paying attention, playing with other children, speech not baby talk, ability to use crayons, pencils, scissors, etc. They also stated the fact that parents should not force a child to do these things, he will do them himself when he is mature enough. Parents were warned to not give a false impression of their child's ability to the teacher.

Rev. R. S. H. Greene, delegate to the Home and School convention held in May, gave a detailed report of this convention. He was impressed by the broad scope of Home and School interest and influence.

The brief presented by the Alberta Federation of Home and School Association was discussed. The brief makes three recommendations—first, general stiffening of the High school curriculum, with more academic subjects; second, increased help for gifted and deserving pupils; third, raising the academic standard required for teachers. In closing Mr. Greene said it was a great experience to exchange thoughts with this group of housewives, farmers, teachers, ministers and professional people, who were all concerned for the best for the young people.

The attendance banner was won by Miss Torrance's grade 1 room, with a count of 18.

During the coffee hour, Rod Cherkas showed a film entitled "Who Is Silva," which dealt with teenage problems.

City Firm Gets RCMP Contract

F. J. Bigg, MP for Athabasca Constituency, announced that a contract in the amount of approximately $38,000.00 has been awarded to C. H. Whitham, Ltd., Edmonton, for the construction of Royal Canadian Mounted Police Detachment quarters in Athabasca. The lowest tender out of 13 tenders received was submitted by this firm.

It is expected that work on this project will start in the near future.

OTIS T. CARR holds an "electric accumulator" which, he says, would be the core of a space ship which could hedge-hop planets of the solar system. He is among a group of Baltimore residents who have announced they have developed a circular motion machine to provide continuous power by harnessing the power of gravity.

Work On Class Rooms Makes Good Progress

LAC LA BICHE—Work is advancing on construction of the new gymnasium and class rooms of the Lac la Biche School Division being built here. The concrete work is completed and framework is now being erected.

The diivsional secretary, W. J. Chester, reports that the five classrooms are expected to be ready for use by Sept. 1. The gymnasium, which will be 50x120 feet, is not expected to be completed until about February, 1959. Overcrowding of the 21 rooms now in use in Lac la Biche has necessitated the addition of the new class rooms.

well-timed hits but his teammates committed seven miscues in the two innings he toiled. David Bencharsky came in to relieve and allowed only three hits. This second game was not as interesting a game as the first game since Grassland had the game well under control from the first and the outcome was already "written on the wall." Although Boyle out-hit Grassland six to five, Grassland bunched their hits to make their hits count.

BOX SCORE

Boyle Comets	1	0	3	1	0	0	1	6

Boyle Rockets ..	0	2	1	0	0	0	1	4
Grassland	0	4	2	0	0	3	x	9

In Passing — It was gratifying to see the Boyle Comets pick themselves up from a 15-4 defeat last week to come up with a near-victory. They were leading 6-4 until the bottom of the seventh inning. The team sure missed the able pitching of Leroy Mellot, who was injured in practice on Wednesday afternoon. Grassland's team spirit coupled with an over-confident Boyle team, gave the Pony Grad game to Grassland. The intermittent rain dampened Boyle team as the game progressed. Grassland's psychology in delaying the game 20 minutes (only seven players present for the Pony Grad game) had its effect on the Boyle team.

Although officiating was lousy, the worst I've encountered so far in league play, the Grassland boys were able to overcome this hazard, while the Boyle team's discontent was their downfall.

The other twin bill, played in Lace la Biche, the Lac la Biche Wildcats (Pony) defeated Newbrook 20-4, and the Lac la Biche Dodgers (Pony Grad) defeated Newbrook Pony Grad 9-6.

June 7, Lac la Biche was at Boyle and Grassland at Newbrook.

A FLIGHT SIMULATOR, which enables Canadian Pacific Airlines to test a pilot's reactions to almost every conceivable emergency, while he is still on the ground is examined by Herbert Hollick-Kenyon, director of CPA's training department, and Capt. James McGuire. The simulator, involving three-quarters of a million dollars' worth of delicate instruments, enables pilots to "fly" under all conditions while sitting in CPA's Vancouver hangar. An instructor at a "panic" instrument panel can test the pilot in any emergency he wants during the "flight."

"THE GREATEST happiness I've ever had," is the way Fedi Timmelmann, 76, describes his feelings of being in Canada with his daughters and granddaughters Ilme Paar, left, and Aina Uus. He is the first Estonian immigrant to leave his native country legally and enter Canada since World War II. His two daughters, mothers of Ilme and Aina, escaped in a small boat to Sweden and then came to Canada. It took two years of negotiations with the Russians to obtain permission for Mr. Timmelmann, a retired sea captain, to leave Estonia.

He spent five months with the USAF flying the delta-winged F-102, a similar type of aircraft, in preparation and has flown the "chase" aircraft in the Arrow's previous flights.

MRS. BERNICE WAGNER of Apsley, Ont., admits that trapping is hard work and she has done enough of it to know. She became a trapper in 1944 when her husband died and she had three children to raise. Pelt prices were better then and she managed to make a living by erecting a dam across a stream and creating a marsh for muskrat and beaver to thrive. Now suffering from a heart ailment, she intends to continue trapping as a hobby and not as a means of livelihood. And anyway, at current prices, she believes it is better to let the animals multiply.

Bank Branch For Caribbean Area

Further details of a new banking organization to serve the Caribbean area, which will be owned and controlled jointly by the Bank of Montreal and the Bank of London and South America, have been announced jointly by the two banks.

The new bank, to serve the islands and the mainland of the Caribbean area, will have an authorized capital of $20,000,000, and probably will be known as the Bank of London and Montreal, with headquarters in the Bahamas.

The statement was made in Montreal by Gordon R. Ball, president of the B of M, and Sir George Bolton, KC.M.G., chairman of BOLSA, and was in amplification of a preliminary announcement made early in May.

While details have not yet been finalized, it is expected that 14 existing BOLSA branches will be brought into the organization. Initially, the B of M will supply its share of capital in the form of cash, while BOLSA will provide branches already established in the area. As the new bank develops, the B of M will gradually assume its full share of management and staff.

The new bank is expected to provide a valuable three-way link between the Canadian financial community, the city of London and the Caribbean and to play an important role in strengthening the ties of friendship between Canada and the Caribbean area.

Sports News

In Minor League Baseball, a double-header was played in Lac la Biche, Sat., May 31st, against Newbrook. The Lac la Biche Pony's trounced the visiting team 20-4, in a 5-inning game. With Franchuk on the mound, he struck out eight. In the second game, the Lac la Biche Pony Grads defeated the Newbrook Pony Grads, 9-6. Lozinsky on the mound, fanned 13 in a 7-inning game. The enthusiastic support given by the fans in the first game was noticeably lacking in the second. More encouragement would have been appreciated by the hard-working teams.

June 5 at Boyle, the Lac la Biche Ponies took Boyle 10-5 in the first game. Pitcher Thom started on the mound, followed by Stubberfield and Franchuk. In the second game, the Pony Grads lost to Boyle 6-5. Pitcher for Lac la Biche was Lozinski.

One more double-header will be played before the playoffs, when Grassland will come to Lac la Biche, Thursday, June 12, for these games.

New School Grounds Are Landscaped

By KAREN STROMBERG

BOYLE — The High School agriculture class began the task Monday, June 2, of planting trees, selected from surrounding areas, and flowers brought by Fred Magera, agriculture teacher.

In previous classes, which meet each Monday, the students and Mr. Magera planned, step-by-step, the landscaping area of the new Boyle school.

Various committees were appointed and each student did his share of the work. The agriculture class extends thanks to Sydney Alexander, Pete O'Ball and Melvin Sumner, Sr., for their co-operation in this endeavor.

The project is not yet completed as various flowers remain to be planted. This will be done on June 9, the last class of the season.

The town girls are watering the flowers daily, while Bob Rembly, maintenance man of the village of Boyle, is watering the trees. The town water truck is being used.

The planting is being done as a memorial of "Those Agriculture Days."

The agriculture students ask the co-operation of Boyle residents in protecting the trees and plants.

EDMONTON TEACHERS REJECT 18.5 PER CENT SALARY INCREASE

EDMONTON (UPI) — Edmonton teachers have rejected the latest salary increase offer of the city's public school board. Negotiations which have dragged on for months, are now deadlocked with the teachers' refusal to accept a conciliation board's recommendation. The conciliation board suggested a wage increase of 18.5 per cent over a two-year period. This would cost the Edmonton public school board an additional $1,161,000 a year in salaries.

The teachers are requesting a 22 percent pay boost. Under an agreement in 1957, they were given a 21 percent average increase in salary. They remain firm in their demands.

School trustee A. G. MacDonald says that the difficulty is that teachers in the Alberta capital are asking for an increase throughout the profession including teachers "without professional training." He described professional training as students who have completed courses in education and not those who have taken one year's session at the university.

MacDonald observed that this year the board will have to hire four 'non-professionals' to one professional teacher. Teachers with one year's training would start at a salary of $2,700, he added.

The trustee declared it was the opinion of the board that the salary scheduled for Edmonton public school teachers was the best in Canada. The board will offer other benefits besides wage increases.

Meanwhile federal aid to education, either directly or through the provinces, has been urged on the government by the 90-thousand member Canadian Teachers' Federation.

In a brief presented to Prime Minister Diefenbaker and the cabinet, the federation made eight suggestions for easing the financial burden of teachers and to equalize teaching conditions across the country.

Among them were: income tax exemptions on items such as expenses for summer courses; federal assistance to an education research bureau; and extension of family allowances to children up to 18 still attending secondary school.

The brief was presented by federation president George L. Roberts of Oshawa, Ontario, and five executive members of the federation. It represents teachers in all provinces except Roman Catholic teachers in Quebec.

Alberta Gas Co. To Borrow $30,000,000

Alberta Gas Trunk Line Company is making arrangements to borrow $30,000,000 by public financing of first mortgage bonds, Vernon Taylor, retiring president, announced at a recent shareholder meeting.

He expected the company could obtain the funds at a slightly better interest rate than the 5½ per cent on borrowings from the provincial government.

Money from the bond issue will be used to defray construction, material and equipment costs of the $27,000,000 1958 program and to pay for pipe shipments arriving late this year for the 1959 program.

INTERIM LOANS

Until funds from the bond sale are released arrangements have been made with the company's bankers for interim borrowings of $21,000,000. These borrowings are to be retired from the bond sale.

Resignation of Mr. Taylor as company president due to pressure of other commitments was announced. Directors are expected to announce their choice for a new president shortly.

Directors elected for the ensuing year are Bruce F. Wilson of Canadian Western Natural Gas, representing utilities; N. E. Tanner, chairman of the board of Trans-Canada Pipe Lines, representing gas export companies; and A. G. Bailey, D. C. Jones, and J. A. Armstrong, representing producers and processors. R. J. Dinning and George Church continue as directors appointed by the lieutenant-governor in council.

Dairy Herd Twinning Not Desirable

Is birth of twin calves in dairy herds a desirable happening?

Probably not, says E. C. Scheidenhelm, University of Kentucky Extension Service, dairyman, if results of a research project in Pennsylvania are conclusive.

In the test, he says, workers found that cows having twins produced considerably more milk in the lactation period preceding the birth of the twins; and that it required more services to make the dam of the twins conceive again after the birth of twins.

Scheidenhelm estimates that, at present prices for fluid milk, the loss in production following birth of twins would be about $40. He thinks it best not to develop herds which have the twinning characteristic, or to buy heifers that were born a twin with another heifer.

Judge Cancels $15,000 Bail

EDMONTON—Mr. Justice Harold Riley cancelled the $15,000 bail allowed Peter Melnyk after he was charged in a $30,000 robbery of the Morinville Savings and Credit Union earlier this year.

Bail was cancelled on the application of crown proscutor W. J. Shortreed after a further remand was granted Melnyk and Richard Holowaty, who remained free on bail.

The case was set over to the fall sittings of the Supreme Court.

P. W. Jones, Holowaty's defence counsel, said he had been appointed Sunday and was "totally unprepared" to go on with the trial.

Melnyk and Holowaty are charged with breaking, entering and theft, possession of stolen property and possession of explosives.

In asking that Melnyk's bail be cancelled, Mr. Shortreed said Melnyk's bondsman is charged under the Customs Act.

Smart business does not require anybody to steal from his neighbors, even if the law permits it.

Export Of Alberta Gas Still Planned

CALGARY (BUP) — Officials of Trans-Western Pipe Line Company say the firm's project to take natural gas from the inter-mountain area of the United States to California will have no effect on plans of Alberta and Southern Gas Company to seek approval for export of Alberta gas to California.

They point out Trans-Western line is designed to serve southern California, primarily the Los Angeles area. Alberta and Southern on the other hand, hopes to supply Canadian natural gas to its parent firm, Pacific Gas and Electric, in Northern California, chiefly in the San Francisco district.

Alberta and Southern has an application to export 450 million cubic feet daily before the Provincial Conservation Board. Its plan calls for the building of a 1300-mile pipeline from Alberta to northern California. It is expected to cost $327 million, if the project wins approval from Canadian and U.S. authorities.

Must Answer Fully To Secure Dividend

EDMONTON — Provincial treasury officials urge Albertans to answer all questions on oil and gas dividends forms to ensure prompt payment.

F. G. Stewart, assistant deputy provincial treasurer, said about 20 per cent of the several thousand forms received by the dividend branch are being returned because of incomplete information.

After completing the form, the applicant must take an oath before a justice of the peace, notary public or commissioner of oaths. The fee for attesting application forms is set by provincial statute at 25 cents. Most lawyers and real estate agents have authority to take oaths while in the country grain buyers usually have the power to take an oath.

Treasury officials say more than 320,000 application forms have been mailed to householders across the province.

This year's dividend is $17.50. Last year's was $20.

Battle Of The Bergs

Keeping track of the ice juggernauts that menace our shipping lines is a full time job, and in the current issue of The Star Weekly, Jesse C. Burt graphically describes the rugged job of detection that keeps track of the icebergs off Canada's coast.

Often camouflaged by fog or storm as it grinds through the night, the iceberg is an enemy which all fear, a monster whose exposed part may be as large as a six-storey building, with about eight times more of it under water. Such a mass may move up to 50 miles a day in the powerful current of the Gulf Stream.

In his Star Weekly, article Jesse Burt takes readers on an actual ice patrol, portraying vividly the detailed and hazardous operations necessary to ensure that each iceberg is properly tracked and its whereabouts broadcast to all shipping in the area.

FESTOONED with weather-statistics ticker tape is Rube Hornstein, a meteorologist with the Dominion Public Weather Office, Halifax who discusses weather topics each Sunday night in his radio broadcast, Ask the Weatherman, on the CBC Trans-Canada network. Mr. Hornstein explains meteorological phenomena for the layman, and suggests how listeners may make a hobby of watching the weather and interpreting its vagaries.

New Oat Strains Resist Rust

U.S. Agriculture Department scientists report they've found 11 strains of oats which carry resistance to one of the five new races of crown rust, a disease threatening the nation's crop.

The 11 strains of cultivated oats are known to have built-in resistance to race 264 crown rust, and they may also prove resistant to other new races of crown rust.

U.S.D.A. says this discovery brightens the outlook for developing new resistant commercial varieties of oats.

NO RECESSION in this business. Unchanged except for a new roof since it was built in 1877, the woollen mill of the Gledhill brothers at Benmiller, near Goderich, Ont., is still being used and still uses a waterwheel for power. There is no depression in the business conducted now by Clyde and Verne Gledhill and they don't have to advertise to sell all the blankets they can make. In the Gledhill factory the virgin wool is processed into blankets, a long and arduous task. Checking a finished blanket is Clyde Gledhill and Ray Moore, a first cousin. They are searching for signs of impurities in the wool.

THIS DOBERMAN pinscher dog being examined by poundkeeper Joe Barron of Scarboro, Ont., is responsible for the death of two-year-old Gerald Pratt of West Hill, Ont. The boy was found in his yard with his pet and died of deep gashes in his neck. His mother immediately shot the dog.

Alberta Pupils To Study Communism?

CALGARY— Teachers of social studies in Calgary public and separate high schools recommended that a course in communism be included in the social studies program, and Calgary high school administrators suggested that consideration be given to introduction of three courses in Russian at the senior high school level.

The recommendations were the first of their kind to be placed before the Cameron commission on education, hearing briefs in Calgary.

Not Put Off

CALGARY (UPI)—Ernest Watkins, Calgary Conservative member of the legislature, was addressing the Mount Royal College graduation banquet in the auditorium when the lights went out. This did not put the speaker off—he carried on!

Replacement Dairy Herds Profitable

A study made by an agricultural college reveals that dairymen who raise their own replacements generally make more money than those who buy their replacements.

In the 763 farms studied, home-raised replacements stayed in the milking herd an average of 50 per cent longer than did heifers brought from the outside.

There also is less disease hazard among home-grown replacements. The study showed that four times as many cows had to be sold because of disease and breeding troubles from herds where replacements were bought than where they were raised.

Too many people know all the answers.

Prairie M.P. Says Two Payments Better

OTTAWA (UPI) — A Saskatchewan member claimed in the Commons that a couple of small deficiency payments on wheat covering two years would be preferable to one large one for a single year.

Richard Southam (PC — Goose Mountain) said deficiency payments for two years would assist those farmers who had had poor crops in either year and thus spread the benefits more evenly.

The rookie MP also asked the government to consider a plan to make available to young and middle-aged farmers a long-term low interest rate loan. He says this would help reverse the fall in Saskatchewan's population.

One of the pleasant episodes of life is making plans to spend money that you never get.

Annette Rudiger, Glen Brown Exchange Rings In St. Catherine's Church

St. Catherine's Roman Catholic Church, Lac la Biche, was the scene of a pretty wedding, June 2 at 10 a.m. when Miss Annette Rachael Rudiger and Mr. Glen Alexander Brown were united in marriage. Rev. Father McGrane officiated at the double-ring ceremony for the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rudiger of Lac la Biche and the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. George Brown of Killarney, Man.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was charming in a floor-length gown of silk organza over satin, styled on princess lines, featuring lace panels back and front, lily-point sleeves and a wide neckline. Her dainty chapel-length veil was held in place by a double crown of pearls and sequins. She carried a white prayerbook garlanded with red sweetheart roses and rosebud streamers.

Mrs. Jean Lebeuf, Tacoma, Wash. cousin of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Cecile Rudiger, sister of the bride and Miss Jean Garneau, Edmonton, cousin of the bride. The attendants wore similarly styled floor-length gowns of lace over satin in shades of orchid, turquoise and pale pink, respectively, with picture hats in tone. Their cascade bouquets were of white carnations.

Little Collette Rudiger, sister of the bride was flower girl, dressed in a dainty flowered pink frock, white hat and gloves. She carried a diminutive basket of baby mums. Her escort was her brother, Patrick.

Mr. Larry Fluk of Rocky Mountain House was best man. Groomsmen were Mr. George Brown, Calgary, brother of the groom and Mr. Paul Rudiger, brother of the bride. Ushers were Mr. Jack Flewin, Jasper and Mr. Robert Rudiger, brother of the bride.

The wedding music was arranged by Miss Yvonne Langevin and Mrs. C. Hamel.

High mass conducted by Rev. Father McGrane was celebrated after the marriage service.

Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served at the York Hotel to 77 relatives and close friends. The toast to the bride was proposed by Father McGrane, to which the groom responded. Telegrams were read by the best man from the groom's parents, a brother and sister from Killarney, Man., and from the bride's cousin, Leon Rudiger, Wash.

Later in the day a reception attended by some 230 relatives and friends was held in the Catholic rectory.

To receive her guests, the mother of the bride, chose a figured nylon gown in shades of blue, complemented by accessories in navy. Her corsage was of pink roses. Since the groom's parents were unable to be present, Mr. and Mrs. John Bouvier represented them. Mrs. Bouvier was dressed in a figured blue silk dress with white accessories. Her corsage was pink roses.

The bride's table laid in white and decorated with baby mums and asters, was centred by a beautiful four-tiered wedding cake which the bride had baked.

Out of town guests for the happy occasion included: Mrs. Esther Davio, Legal, grandmother of the bride, Mrs. L. Condrotte, Grimshaw, great aunt of the bride, Mrs. Pauline Garland and Mr. and Mrs. J. Rudiger, Cutknife, Sask., Mrs. Gerald Rudiger, Westlock, Mr. and Mrs. L. Garneau, Mr. and Mrs. L. Garneau, Mrs. Louis Letain, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Letourneau, all of Edmonton, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Garneau, Vimy.

For her going away costume, the bride chose a suit in olive green with tan and pink accessories. After attending the wedding of the groom's brother, Jack at Killarney, Man., later in June, Mr. and Mrs. Brown will make their home in Rocky Mountain House.
